

POSSESSIVE ADJECTIVES

1 s	my	Mi, mis	1 p	our	Nuestro, -a, -os, -as
2 s	your	Tu, tus	2 p	your	Vuestro. -a, -os, -as
3 sf	her	Su, sus (de ella)	3 p	their	Su, sus (de ellos, -as)
3 sm	his	Su, sus (de él)
3 sn	its	Su, sus (de animal o cosa)

Los adjetivos posesivos se colocan delante de los sustantivos. Son invariables (no cambian para el plural o el femenino): my brother → my brothers; our sister → our sisters.

Es importante no confundir its (sus, sus) con it's = it is (= es/está).

1. Elige entre her, his, its, their.

- a. This is Robert. _____ bike is blue. b. This is Mary. _____ hair is blonde.
 c. Those are the children. _____ classroom is 5th A.
 d. Look at the dog. _____ fur is black. e. I like Seville for _____ monuments.
 f. Joselito and _____ sister are ill. g. She is Catherine with _____ son.
 h. My best friends are from Scotland. _____ house is in Edinburgh.
 i. That's Elisa. Do you like _____ dress? j. That is the bus. _____ is red.

2. Elige entre its / it's.

- a. This is my jacket. _____ new. b. This is my jacket. _____ colour is blue.
 c. I visited Cádiz, famous for _____ Carnival. d. _____ raining in Scotland.
 e. Come on, children! _____ time for lunch. f. I like this flower for _____ smell.
 g. _____ fantastic to read this book and see _____ illustrations.

3. Elige el adjetivo posesivo adecuado.

- a. My grandparents live in Carmona. _____ house is very old.
 b. Adrián and I are very good friends. _____ hobby is playing the guitar.
 c. (Tom and Arthur are speaking)
 TOM.- Arthur, have you got _____ rubber?
 ARTHUR.- No, I haven't got _____ rubber, Tom.
 d. (The teacher speaking) . Children, pick up _____ books.
 e. We are very happy because _____ parents are healthy and have a good job.
 f. What's Sara's surname? → _____ surname is Fernández.
 g. What's Francisco's surname? → _____ surname is Sánchez.
 h. I'm very fond of cinema. _____ favourite film is "Toy story".
 i. Juliet, what's _____ telephone number? → _____ telephone is 954323120.