	El Ejido (Spanish pronunciation: [el e'xiðo]) is a municipality of Almería province, in the autonomous community of Andalusia, Spain. It is located 32 km from Almería with a surface area of 227 km², and as reported in 2014 had 84,144 inhabitants. El Ejido is the centre of production for fruit and vegetables in the "Comarca de El Poniente". The work opportunities the city provides attract many foreign farmhands, who look for jobs mainly in the greenhouses there. Some greenhouses have begun using computer-controlled hydroponics [2] systems, thus saving on labour, improving efficiency and the local economy. In close proximity to the city along the coast line is situated Almerimar, a popular destination for tourism and relaxation. There is a cinema at a big store , as well as a library. There are a couple of centers to explore with markets and shops. There are also a variety of restaurants that serve amazing Spanish food, which allows you to fully experience southern Spain. People from El Ejido are very hospitable, which means one can easily integrate with the locals. Along with being welcoming, locals are also eager to learn which allows for both language and cultural exchange.
