

Name _____ Date _____

Remember

- There are different relationships between the living things in an ecosystem: food relationships, competition and cooperation.
- We use food chains to show how living things feed off other living things in an ecosystem.

1 Match.

Competition

When two living things have the same needs.

Cooperation

When living things eat other living things.

Food relationships

When two living things help each other.

2 Draw the arrows for this food chain.3 Write the names of the living things in Activity 2.

plant

herbivore

carnivore