ALMERIA (SPAIN)

Almería is a Spanish province located at the eastern end of Andalusia, surrounded by Granada, Murcia and the Mediterranean Sea.

The capital of the province is also called Almería and it is where our school is located.

OUR PROVINCE

Almería is a province with a great historical and cultural legacy, with places as notable as a golf course on the beach or typical white towns in the mountains of La Alpujarra and Sierra Nevada.

TOWNS IN ALMERÍA

MOJÁCAR

Mojácar is divided into two parts: Mojácar town and Mojácar beach. A symbol is the mojaquera. Mojácar is one of the best-known towns in Almería.

ROQUETAS DE MAR:

It is a very large town in Almería. In the current 2024 it has a quarter of the population of Almería! Roquetas de Mar is notable for its beaches.

MACAEL

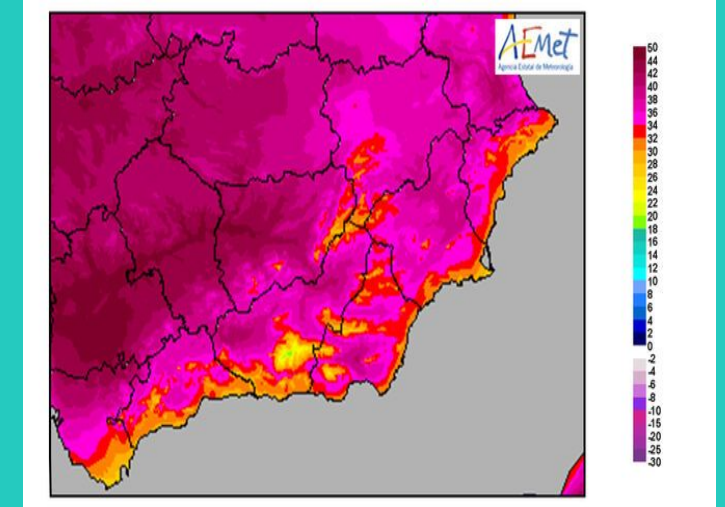

Macael is a town in Almería that is famous for its large amount of marble. There is a Guinness record of a mortar of 50,000 kg.

ALMERÍA: THE CAPITAL

ALMERÍA CLIMATE

The climate of Almería is subdesert Mediterranean characterized by little annual rainfall and drought in summer.

POPULATION OF ALMERÍA

On January 1, 2023, the population of the city of Almería was 201,775 inhabitants.

FLORA

Almería is one of the areas with the greatest biodiversity in Europe.

There are more than 3,000 species of vascular plants catalogued, the flora being one of the richest on the European continent.

We have a large number of endemic plants that are species that are only found here or that are distributed over a small area that includes our province.

FAIR

The Almería Fair is the big festival of our city, it begins two Fridays before the last Sunday in August, lasts nine days and is celebrated in honor of the Virgin of the Sea.

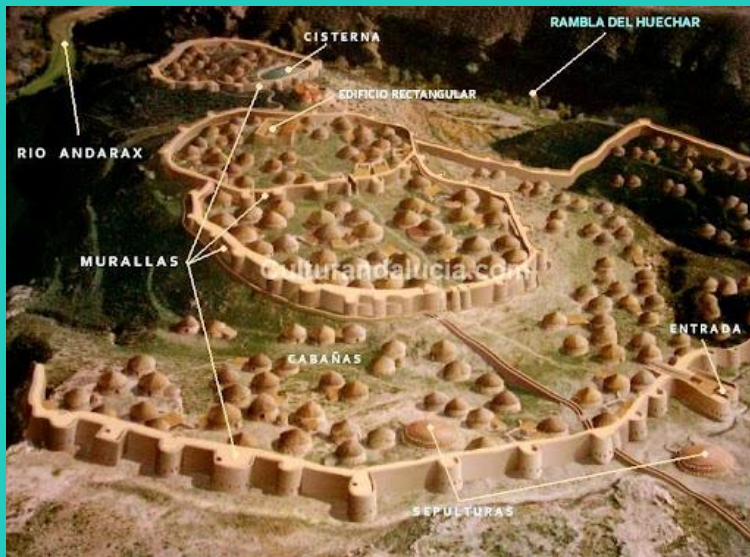

We have a night fair and a midday fair.

The midday fair is made up of street bars known as "ambigús", stalls at street level with music, dancing and performances throughout the center of Almería.

HISTORICAL CURIOSITIES

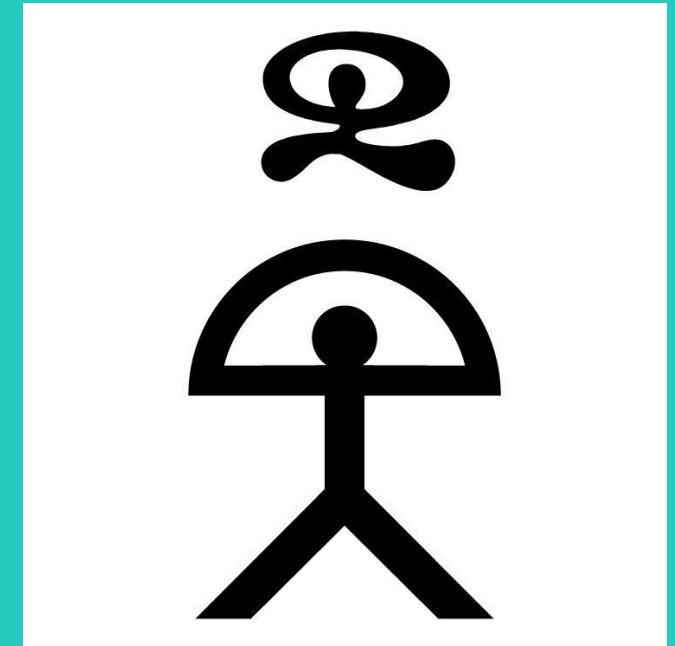

The town of Los Millares is the oldest city in Spain. It is located 22 kilometers from Almería capital.

5,200 years ago, during the Copper Age, 1,500 people lived there.

MONUMENTS

CINEMA IN ALMERÍA

The landscapes of Almería and its buildings have attracted a lot of attention for filming films and series.

THE HOUSE OF CINEMA

The cinema house is a museum dedicated to the history of cinema in Almería.

It is located in the house where the singer John Lennon lived for a time.

FOOTBALL TEAM

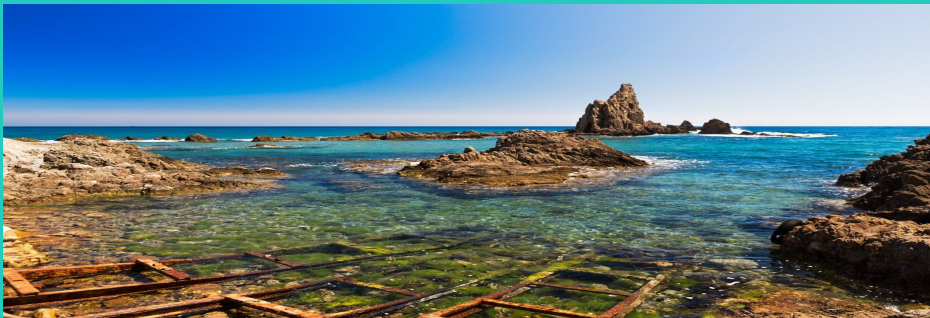

UD Almería is a modest and humble club that currently plays in the first division. This is their worst season because they have only won one game.

BEACHES

Some of the best known are those of Cabo de Gata, San José, Playa de los Muertos and, in the capital, Playa Zapillo

DESERT

The Tabernas desert is 30 minutes from Almería capital and is considered the only desert in Europe, since the rest are considered semi-desert areas.

TRADITIONAL MUSIC AND DANCES

Flamenco in Almería is lived and felt every day. The Almería Flamenco and Dance Festival, “Yo, Flamenco”, has been commemorating this important cultural manifestation in our land for 53 editions.

TRADITIONAL MUSIC AND DANCES

Among our traditional dances and songs, the Almería fandango, the taranta, the taranto and the petenera of Almería stand out.

They have their origin in the popular songs and dances of the miners and grape harvesters of the province.

The singers and their songs from...ALMERÍA!
