INFORMATION ABOUT THE NEIGHBOURHOOD AND CITY	Baza is the largest municipality in the province of Granada. It's located to the north of it. Due to its long history, it has numerous archaeological sites and monuments of great historical and cultural value like the ibero-roman city of Basti where the Dama de Baza was discovered, a statue dating from the 4th century BC. Its environment offers landscapes as the Sierra de Baza (Natural Park), the semi-desert land or Badland in the highlands or the green of the cultivated areas. In this spectacular natural setting you can practise all kinds of sports, hiking, biking and even free flight.
