LISTENING

10 01/11

Male: Hi, Pam. You didn't come to the pub on Saturday night. What happened?
Female: It was my mother's 60th birthday. We had a party for her.
Male: That's right! I forgot. How was it?
Female: It was great, thanks. About 40 people came.
Male: Really? Where did you have it?
Female: We wanted to go to the Kings Hotel, but it was expensive, so we had it at home in our garden. We were lucky – the weather was good.
Male: Sounds great, Pam.
Female: It was. Luckily, a lot of people helped me. My sister Lily sent the invitations and baked the cake. I made the salads. My aunt Jane made some delicious pasta and my uncle Sam organised the drinks.
Male: Was it a surprise party?
Female: We wanted it to be a surprise, but my mother found out. My grandmother forgot it was a surprise and she told her!
