WORKING WITH DIALOGUES

3  03/16

Maggie: Hi, Lorenzo! Do you like our town?
It's small, but there are lots of things to see and do.

Lorenzo: I love it!

Maggie: What would you like to do, Lorenzo?

Lorenzo: I'd like to go to a pub. Why don't we go with your friends?

Maggie: My friends are studying at the moment. I usually meet them at six o'clock. Why don't we go to the park now?

Lorenzo: OK, but I'd like to go to my hotel first.

Maggie: No problem, Lorenzo. It's on the way.

Lorenzo: Great!

Come and spend an exciting day in York!

There's lots to do. Walk on the city walls for a great panorama of the city. Visit the Yorkshire

Museum and after that take a walk in the museum's beautiful botanical gardens. Go to York Minster – a large medieval cathedral. It has got a fascinating window from the year 1408.

For a special experience, walk to the Minster via the Shambles, an old street with houses from the 1300s. Take a Bridges of York tour. On this tour, you walk for about two hours and see seven interesting bridges. Don't miss the Stonegate area in York. Walk around the little shops and have a coffee at one of the cafés there.
