WORKING WITH DIALOGUES

3  03/02

Bradley: Hi, Mark. Are you free tomorrow evening?

Mark: Maybe. Why?

Bradley: I've got a friend who would love to meet you.

Mark: Again? Remember you introduced me to Katie last month? It was a disaster!

Bradley: You'll love Clare. She's really nice.

Mark: Have I met her before?

Bradley: Yes. She was at my party on Saturday night.

Mark: Was she the girl in the red dress?

Bradley: That's right! So what do you say?

Mark: I'm up for it!

WORKING WITH DIALOGUES

4  03/09

Jane: Hi, Freddie. Long time no see! Are you going to Peter and Millie's dinner party on Friday?

Freddie: No. Unfortunately, I had to refuse the invitation.

Jane: Why is that?

Freddie: Rose and I are celebrating our first anniversary on Friday, so we're going to the Ed Sheeran concert. We got our tickets three weeks ago.

Jane: That's great! I haven't been to a good concert for ages.

Freddie: Yes, I'm sure we'll have a wonderful time.

Laura: Hello, Charlotte? It's Laura.

Charlotte: Hi, Laura. How are things?

Laura: Great! Richard and I have just returned from a weekend in Paris. We celebrated our fifth anniversary there.

Charlotte: Oh! Congratulations!

Laura: What about you, Charlotte?

Charlotte: I didn't feel well last week – I had flu, but I'm feeling much better now.

Laura: Good thing you're feeling better. Anyway, Richard and I are having a dinner party on Saturday evening and we'd love to see you. We're not inviting many people. Martin and Ingrid are coming, so with you and George, Richard and me, we'll be six.

Charlotte: We aren't busy on Saturday night, so George and I will be happy to come.

Laura: Great. I also wanted to invite Jessica and David, but Jessica doesn't like Ingrid, so I didn't invite them.

Charlotte: It's probably better that way. By the way, I saw Jessica at a wedding recently. She looked great.

Laura: Yes, she always looks good. So, is eight o'clock good for you?

Charlotte: Yes, that's fine.

Laura: Great. So see you then!
