About like North Carolina. The climate is dry and warm in summer and not so hot and rainy in winter.                                                                                                                                                                   |

* The city:

Chiclana is a city of 90,000 inhabitants. It stands out for its long and clean golden sand beaches. It is divided into different areas: the tourist area on the beach, the historic center in the center and a large number of chalets scattered around the outskirts. It is a perfect place for water sports such as surfing or sailing, also hiking stands out for its beautiful pine forests and has a very rich gastronomy with an important wine industry.

Its town center is old but not the typical Andalusian town. On the other hand, the neighborhoods by the sea (about 5 miles from the High School) are touristy and quiet (but in winter they can be lonely). Rents are very high in the summer and affordable the rest of the year. Another option is to live in Cádiz. It is a city about 15 miles from the school. There you can find many American students and people from all over the world living there. It is more expensive, but you can share an apartment with other people. Examples: Chiclana https://www.idealista.com/alquiler-viviendas/chiclana-de-la-frontera-cadiz/con-estudios,de-un-dormitorio/?ordenado-por=precios-asc Cadiz https://www.idealista.com/es/alquiler-viviendas/cadiz-cadiz/ You can reach out to the school's language coordinator for more advice on where to find housing. |
