Information about the town and/or neighborhood	Benalmadena is one of the most important resorts on the western Costa del Sol, offering a variety of options: firstly, the village itself, located in the upper part of the municipality, featuring traditional architecture which reflects its origins and affording beautiful panoramic views; further down stands a

	district of great importance, Arroyo de la Miel, where most of the population live, with its wealth of tourist facilities, including an international pleasure park; and, finally, Benalmadena Costa, where most of the facilities for sun and sand tourism are concentrated: hotels, a casino, golf courses, a pleasure harbour etc. https://disfruta.benalmadena.es/ https://www.spainmadesimple.com/costa-del-sol/benalmadena/
Getting to school	Benalmadena is situated between the similar large, high-rise beach resorts of Fuengirola and Torremolinos and is within easy reach of Malaga Airport which is only 12 km (7 miles) away. Use these coordinates for sat nav to find your way here – 36°36'N 4°31'W. Train from Malaga There is a regular rail service from the airport to the train station in Arroyo de la Miel. The main bus stop is situated next to the tourist office in Avenida Antonio Machado. From here you can catch buses along the coast to Torremolinos, Fuengirola and Marbella, as well as inland to Mijas and Ronda. http://www.malagaweb.com/espanol/transporte/tren-cercanias-malaga.php https://www.renfe.com/es/es/cercanias/cercanias-malaga/horarios Taxi from Malaga The easiest way of getting from Malaga airport to Benalmadena is just to jump in a taxi directly outside the airport terminal. Other airport transfer options would be booking a shuttle bus which is much the same as a taxi. Once you come out of customs and you have collected your luggage you simply go to the transfers desk and you are then taken directly to your accommodation. The Price is approximately 20 euros.
