| Information about the town: | Our high school in Jerez: Our highschool is located about 2 km of the town center. This distance can be covered by public transport in around 10/15 minutes. Walking would take approximately 25 to 30 minutes. Our town: Jerez de la Frontera. Our town, in Southern Spain, is located in the province of Cádiz, Andalucía. It is the largest city in the province, with a population of around 200,000 people. Jerez is famous for the Sherry wine, flamenco and its Royal Andalusian School of Equestrian Art, world-famous for training Andalusian horses. Here, you could visit the Circuito de Jerez, which hosts MotoGP races and other motorsport events. Among its most important events and festivals, we have the Horse Fair in May, (a week-long festival with horses and | dancing), and the Semana Santa (Holy Week), (its major religious festival with amazing processions)

You have to visit the Alcázar, a Moorish fortress from the 11th, the beautiful baroque and gothic style Cathedral, the Tabancos, traditional taverns where you can enjoy sherry and live flamenco performances...

Jerez de la Frontera is surrounded by some fascinating places to explore. Here are a few recommendations:

El Puerto de Santa María: Just a short drive away, this charming town is known for its beautiful old town and lovely beaches.

Sanlúcar de Barrameda: Famous for its sherry production and stunning beaches, it's a perfect spot for a relaxing day by the sea.

Chipiona: This coastal town offers beautiful beaches and a wonderful lighthouse.

Arcos de la Frontera: A picturesque white village perched on a cliff, known for its beautiful views and historic charm.

Seville: About an hour's drive away, Seville is a must-visit for its rich history, stunning architecture, and flamenco culture.

Jerez is a culinary treasure trove! Here are some dishes you have to try:

Gazpacho, a classic Andalusian cold soup, perfect for hot summer days. It's made, mainly, from raw vegetables and has a refreshing flavor.

Tuna, fresh tuna caught using an ancient method called "Almadraba". You can enjoy it raw in the central market or as a main course in restaurants.

Tortillas de Camarones, shrimp fritters made with a tiny species of shrimp unique to Andalusia.

Berza Jerezana: A stew with chickpeas, vegetables, pulled pork, and chorizo, perfect for cold days.

You can have a brief information about the town in the following tourist videos.

Jerez de la Frontera is a city with plenty to offer. Here are some ideas to make the most of your year:

Explore the Local Culture: You can visit the sherry bodegas, attend flamenco shows, and watch the famous horse shows at the Royal Andalusian School of Equestrian Art.

Learn Spanish: Immerse yourself in the language by taking Spanish classes. The Sage Spanish Institute offers an intensive three-week immersion program tailored for international students.

Join the Assistants' Activities: there are plenty of activities and events organized by your community. You can find accommodation, meet new friends, and participate in various cultural and social events.

Visit Historical Sites: Jerez is rich in history. Explore the Alcázar of Jerez, the Cathedral, and the many beautiful churches and squares around the city.

Enjoy the Festivals: These events are a great way to experience local traditions and have fun.

Outdoor Activities: Take advantage of the beautiful weather and explore the surrounding nature. You can go hiking, visit the nearby beaches, or take a day trip to the different natural parks.

Join Student Clubs and Societies: Many universities have clubs and societies that cater to various interests. Joining these can help you make friends and engage in activities you enjoy.

Volunteer: Get involved in the local community by volunteering. It's a great way to give back, improve your language skills, and meet locals.

Travel: Jerez is well-connected to other parts of Spain and Europe. Take the opportunity to travel and explore other cities and countries during your breaks.
