Information about the town and/or neighborhood	Andujar is a welcoming lively city with plenty of cultural and sport activities and events. These include: Cinema, drama plays, music shows (Flamenco and folkloric) Street market on Tuesday mornings, Religious festivities (Holy week, the Romeria pilgrimage, San Eufrasio fair,...) Sport competitions and public facilities (football, basketball, tennis, padel, athletics,...) https://docs.google.com/presentation/d/1YBE8CtvCLGgkec7HA6HzBXLpSOk25Fnr/edit?usp=sharing&oid=107210267668425747744&rtpof=true&sd=true Andujar Natural Park is unique in its ample range of both flora and fauna. You will enjoy wildlife and unspoilt lush nature. Gastronomy: the food local market offers you the possibility to get local products and have them cooked on the spot. You will definitely enjoy the exotic tapas at the countless bars and restaurants. https://en.turismodeandujar.com/
Getting to school	Andújar has a good connection with Madrid by bus: https://socibusventas.es/es/ The city is easily reached by plane from several international airports (Madrid, Seville and Málaga being the most commonly used) Once settled, the bus and the train are the cheapest means to get you to the most interesting places (Córdoba, Granada, Seville,...). You can also rent a vehicle in our city in case you need it. Bus station and taxi http://estaciondeautobusesandujar.es/ Train station
