

LONDON TRIP

It was an experience I will never forget.

On the one hand what I liked the most about this trip was the London Eye for its amazing views, and also the Big Ben because I was impressed how big it is.

On the other hand, I didn't like the food, I thought it would be better. And finally I didn't enjoy the Change of Guard because it was very cold that day.

Still, I would like to live this experience again.
