

THE SPOOKY SHADOW

It was a dark night. I was staying in a holiday house. I was walking along and the trees were creaking but I was very calm because I am not a scaredy-cat or that is what I thought

I was very tired and therefore I went to my bed. Suddenly I heard an eerie scream but I ignored it. I was starting to be scared. I was calling my mum because she had gone on a journey

She didn't answer me. I went out then I saw a doomed shadow in front of me. I ran so fast and I heard it behind me. I hid in the kitchen

I was brave and I went seeking the shadow. I turned on all the lights and suddenly I noticed that the spooky shadow was my dog. Or that is what I think.

ROSES

I've always heard stories of how haunted the Thydenker Hospital was, and my friend and I, well, we didn't believe them, and now he's gone. All because of a stupid video. I have to go and find him.....

I'm at the hospital entrance. There are many roses along the way, it has drawn my attention. I'm nervous, let's go.

I'm inside the hospital. There are many rooms and lights that turn on and off. I feel very cold and I'm scared. Hello! John! (a creaking door) Is anyone there?

I'm finding many roses. There is a rose on each hospital gurney. I hear noises and some footsteps. There's a big door and you need a card. "While I was looking for John, I found a dead doctor". Oh. He has a keycard! This keycard has to be for the main entrance. "I picked it up and I ran to the main entrance. I arrived at the main entrance and I could open it".

I went in and in the hall there are many hospital gurneys. What? There is a person in a gurney. John! He's John! It seems that he's asleep, I hope so. "I ran towards him and the hospital gurney started to run over me. At that moment I just had time to close my eyes and when I opened them, I was in my room. From there on, nobody believes me and nobody knows John. The only proof of all this is a rose that I found on my shelf."

DEATH ANNIVERSARY

It was late at night when a boy who went home by car. Discovered at the roadside a girl who was hitchhiking. The girl looked terrified and icy. So the boy decided to stop, helped her and accompanied her home. As he supposed she was cold so he lent her jacket. The girl wasn't very talkative so it was he who spoke almost the whole way.

The next morning the boy realized that the girl had taken his jacket home. To retrieve it and to see it again, because he liked it, he decided to go back to her house, where he had left her last night. When a lady, not very old, knocked on the door, but she opened the door. He explained what had happened and asked about his daughter. As the boy's story progressed, the woman went pale more and more. She broke into tears.

After recovering from the initial shock the woman asked the boy a moment, she went into the house and returned soon with a photo. He showed it to the boy. It was a photo of the girl who was her daughter.

She was because a year ago, she died in a car accident on the same road the allegedly found her. The night before had been exactly the anniversary of her death.

The boy went to the cemetery to see if what she said was true. And there the terror symbolizes him and made his pale. On a tomb, the tomb of the girl, there was his jacket.
