

The following statements are not true. Can you correct them?

For example:

1. We are on the beach (in class).
 - a. No, we aren't on the beach. We are in class.
2. In Britain, people drive on the right (on the left).
 - a. No, in Britain people don't drive on the right. They drive on the left.

3. The sun rises in the West.
4. The Pope lives in France.
5. We travel to Hawaii every summer. (to Malaga)
6. Skiing is boring. (good fun)
7. They went to a Chinese restaurant last night. (Indian)
8. The party was very boring. (a lot of fun)
9. She wrote me a long letter to apologise. (a short email)
10. I told you to come at 6:00. (at 7:00)

The following statements are not true. Can you correct them?

For example:

1. We are on the beach (in class).
 - No, we aren't on the beach. We are in class.
2. In Britain, people drive on the right (on the left).
 - No, in Britain people don't drive on the right. They drive on the left.

3. Mice catch cats.
4. It snows when it is hot. (cold)
5. Jennifer has a lot of friends. (a few)
6. Messi plays for Real Madrid. (Barcelona)
7. She will get more money next year. (less)
8. They ate the whole turkey. (just half of it)
9. He's bought a brand new car. (second hand)
10. My father was going to get me an iphone for my birthday. (laptop)