

Types of Music

Vocabulary

Structure

Audience

Passed down

Composer

Purpose

Estructura

Audiencia

Tradicion oral

Compositor

Proposito

1. ORIGEN

origen

Popular Music

- Simple structure
- Created for a large audience (commercialized)
- Could be traditional or something like pop or rock

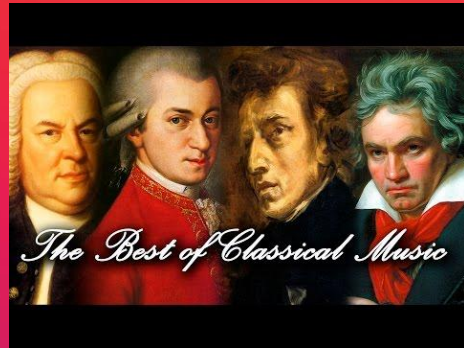

Traditional Music

- Usually song and dance
- Passed down through generations
- Represents history and traditions of a place

Classical Music

- Complex
- Sophisticated
- Certain composers in a certain time period

2. Theme

tema

Religious Music

- Created specifically for religious purposes
- Could accompany a ceremony

Secular Music

- Has nothing to do with religion
- The opposite of religious music

3. INSPIRATION

inspiracion

Descriptive Music

- Tells a story
- Has a purpose other than the music itself
- Music in movies

Pure Music

- Does not tell a story or have another purpose
- Exclusively for musical purposes
- Melody, rhythm, etc.

4. PERFORMER

interpretes

Vocal Music

- Only voice
- No instruments

Instrumental Music

- Only instruments
- No voice

Vocal Instrumental Music

- Both voice and instruments

“

We can use more than one type of music to classify one song.

Music Genres

Jazz

Blues

Punk

Indie

Musical Theater

Rock

Dance

Alternative

Reggae

Swing

Hip hop

Country

Techno

Opera

Reggaeton