

All About Me!

My family

More about Indiana!

A lot of corn!

Very flat!

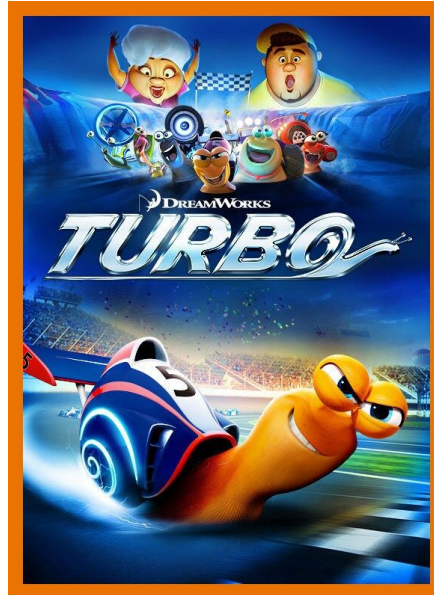

The state fair!

Indy 500

The indy 500 happens every year on Memorial Day weekend in May. It is a NASCAR race! Many people from around the world visit Indianapolis to see it. It is the world's largest single-day sporting event!

Other sports teams!

Both teams finished 6th place in 2024 season

Typical Indiana Food

Pork tenderloin sandwich

Sugar cream pie

Breadsticks with nacho cheese

Corn on the cob

What I actually eat at home!

Usually, breakfast is in the morning, lunch around 12pm, and dinner is at 6pm after school and all the activities!

What is school like in the Indiana?

I went to public schools!

Public schools can be big! My high school had about 3,300 students!

High school was 7:30am to 2:55pm with lunch at 11:30 and elementary and middle school were 8:30 to 3:55pm.

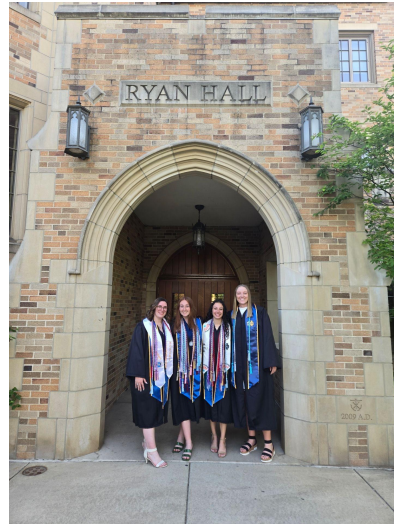

Recess was after lunch in elementary and middle school.

Education in the USA
	LEVEL/GRADE	TYPICAL AGE
Secondary Education	High School (Grades 9-12)	14-18
	Middle School (Grades 6-8)	11-14
Primary Education	Elementary School (Kindergarten + Grades 1-5)	5-11
	Pre-School (Pre-kindergarten)	3-5

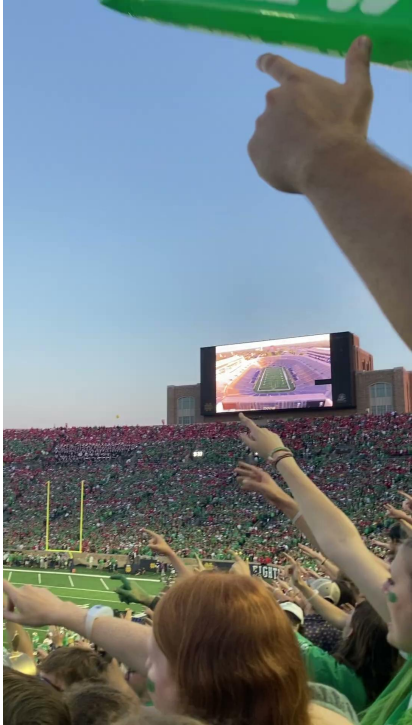

My University

I went to the University of Notre Dame. It was 2 hours away from my home. I lived in dormitories or small apartments at the University. I studied 4 years for my Neuroscience bachelor's degree.

College football at my school

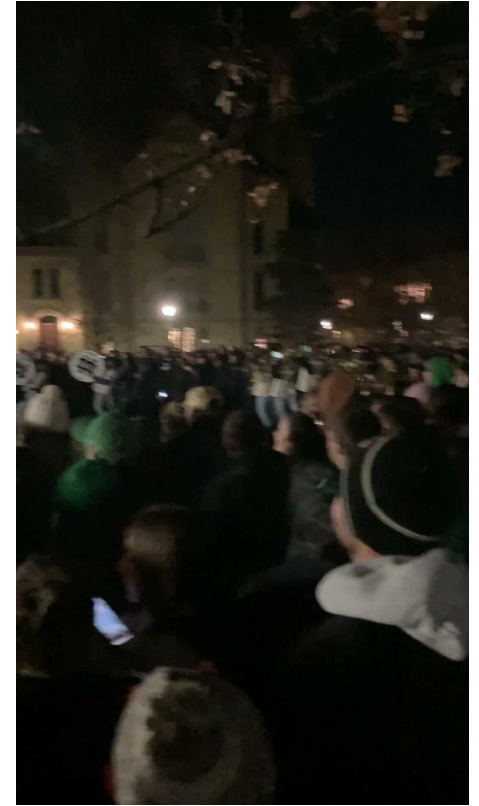

American football is important, like football/soccer in Spain! My school's team was very good and the stadium was full every game!

Some Football Traditions

Touchdown push-ups

Drummer's Circle

What do I like to do?

I like sports!

I started running in a sport called Cross Country since 5th grade. I ran track in high school through the school. Sports are very important in the US.

I like music!

In 5th grade, I played the viola in school until the 8th grade.

I like to dance!

At the University, I learned to dance in a club for Latino dances like salsa, bachata, merengue, cumbia, and banda.

I also danced Ballet Folklorico!

Thank you!!

Any questions?