

What does Garfield do on Mondays?

What's out!

Look at the pictures write the verbs in present simple and the time:

All the verbs are in 3rd person sing.

have (x3)

get up

comb

dance

brush

ride

swim

play

use

do (x2)

drive

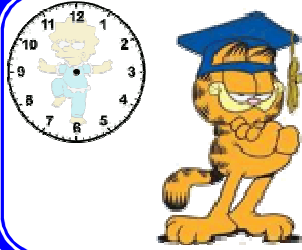

listen

eat

go (x2)

He _____ lunch at one o'clock everyday.

He _____ to school at quarter to nine Monday to Friday.

He _____ at half past seven on Mondays.

He _____ a shower two days per week at ten to eight.

He _____ his hair and _____ his teeth at quarter past eight

He _____ his homework at twenty past four.

He _____ to bed at ten to twelve at the weekends.

He _____ to music in his bedroom at quarter past six.

He _____ the piano in the school at twenty - five eleven.

He _____ the computer at ten to ten on Saturdays.

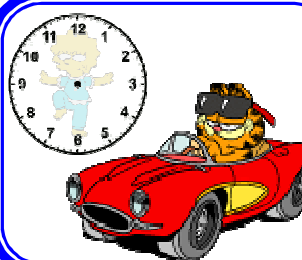

He _____ coffee for breakfast at twenty past eight.

He _____ ballet at quarter to twelve.

He _____ the gardening at five o'clock on Sundays.

On Saturdays he _____ his car at ten past four.

He _____ in the pool and _____ sausages at ten to one

He _____ his bike at half past two on Fridays.

Act the Story Out

Simple Present and Routines

Once upon, there is a young girl named Kristina. She gets up at 7 o'clock every day except Sunday. She does morning exercises. She cleans her teeth and has a shower. Then she has breakfast. In the mornings, she eats eat fried eggs and cheese sandwiches and drinks colacao. After that, she gets dressed and goes to school. She studies at school from 8:30 in the morning. She goes home at 3 o'clock and has lunch. She watches TV and plays computer games. After that, she does her homework and goes for a walk with her friends. In the evening, she tidies her room and has dinner. She has dinner at 8:00 in the evening. Sometimes, she watches a movie, walks in the park or goes shopping. She also reads books and plays football. She runs, jumps, and walks when playing football. At 10 o'clock, Kristina takes a shower, brushes her teeth, and goes to bed. She sleeps with her cat.

