

SUMMER in the Philippines

How do Filipinos enjoy their Summer?

Table of contents

01

Summertime

Schedule and Weather

Activities

School Break and Holidays

02

03

Summer Food

Fruits and Food in Season

Traditions

Customs during Summer in the PH

04

01

SUMMER

time

Schedule and Weather

SUMMER has come

THE Philippine Atmospheric, Geophysical and Astronomical Services Administration (Pagasa) declared on Tuesday, March 21, 2023, the beginning of summer season.

In a statement, Pagasa said the dry and warm season is expected to last until May.

When does summer begin?

March to May are the dry months.

Typhoons are rare.

51

51c

Highest Temperature
Index in the Philippines
(Recorded in 2021).

Seasons timeline

Driest Months

March

May

Rainy Months

June

August

AWESOME

summer

How do Filipinos handle the heat?

02

Activities

Things to Do

Top 3 activities

Summer Camps

Music, Sports

Go to Waterfalls and Beach

Nature-tripping

Travel or Going back to Hometown

Music Camps

Go to the beach

36,289

There is an estimate of 36,289 beaches in the Philippines.

Go Home to the Provinces

03

Summer Food

Food in Season

Mangoes

Pineapples

Pineapples from Gawad Kalinga Pinyasan Village in Daet town, Camarines Norte.

Photo by Mark Alvic Esplana, Inquirer Southern Luzon

Watermelon

Sorbetes or Dirty Ice Cream

Halo-Halo

Mais con Yelo

Ice Scramble

04

Traditions

Flores De Mayo / Santacruzán

Flores De Mayo / Santacruzán

Semana Santa (Palm Sunday)

<https://www.lumina.com.ph/news-and-blogs/blogs/holy-week-traditions-in-the-philippines/>

Semana Santa (Fasting)

Semana Santa (Visita Iglesia)

Summer Festivals

Summer Festivals

Summer Festivals

Summer Festivals

Summer Festivals

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ZCkNMYuszz0>

What about you?

How do people in Spain
enjoy their summer?

Thanks!

Do you have any questions?

CREDITS: This presentation template was created by Slidesgo, and includes icons by Flaticon and infographics & images by Freepik

Please keep this slide for attribution